

la prairie group

La Prairie is the leader in luxury skincare, present in 90 countries around the world. Synonymous not only with luxury, the La Prairie name evokes innovation, performance, high-touch service and Swissness — the purity, precision and excellence inherent to the extraordinary land that saw the brand's inception in 1978. La Prairie endeavors to fulfill a quest for timeless beauty through the highest standards of advanced technology combined with exquisite formulations and elegant packaging — elevating science to art.

For our Packaging Lifecycle team located in Volketswil ZH, we are looking for an

Intern Packaging Lifecycle

Responsibilities

You will be a part of the packaging team and support actively on all ongoing projects and issues.

Within your role you are:

- Organizing technical drawings, prototypes and release packaging structures
- Performing packaging test
- Select and specify packaging materials
- Support on filling trials
- Developing secondary packaging for innovations
- Working with all our internal departments and our 3rd Party Manufactures (3PM)
- Establishing Bill of Materials and enter related packaging information into our SAP system
- Working on allocated process optimization and packaging improvement

Qualifications

- Student / Graduate in Packaging Technology, Process Technology or similar
- Ideally first experience in the packaging industry
- Advanced user of MS Office
- Good analytical, communication and organization skills
- International mindset, structured and proactive person
- Ability to work independently and to take responsibility for own projects/tasks
- Fluent written and spoken English language skills, German skills are an advantage as any other languages

Duration

6 – 10 months

Starting date

asap

Location

CH-8604 Volketswil, Zürich

Interested

If you are interested in this exciting internship opportunity, please send your application to: Mrs. Weiji Stocker-Phung / application@LaPrairieGroup.ch /Ref.: Intern Packaging Lifecycle www.laprairiegroup.ch

By submitting your application, you confirm that you have read and accepted our Privacy Notice <http://www.laprairiegroup.ch/privacynotice-CH-en.pdf>

